Description	We share Bible studies, discussions and meals together. We have a heart of community and are friends, doing life together, learning and discipling together. We aim to journey closer to discover who He is and the awesomeness that He has for our lives and how we might be used in His kingdom works. We usually start with cake! All are so welcome.

Facilitator	David Wicksteed

Description	We are St Margaret's Men's Group. Our courses are usually quite varied, covering aspects of faith, Scripture, life stories etc. and we like to make use of DVD's and course books to guide us. The group leader also has a weakness for famous quotes and usually tries to find some that (he hopes) are relevant. We don't take ourselves too seriously and humour is an important part of our meetings. We also greatly value honesty. Most of our faith journeys involve times of doubt, anger or confusion and exploring these (even though this is very difficult) is important. New members are welcome – especially if they bring snacks and don't mind a warm welcome from Welby: the host's terrier.

Description	We are a group of 7 ladies of a certain age. Many are grandparents which keeps us young at heart. We start the evening with hot drinks and “nice” biscuits and have a catch up. We have enjoyed a wide variety of scripture courses and often found these encouraging for daily living, prayer and trying to follow Jesus in our frontline. We do appreciate having a DVD to introduce the scene. We have between us some very different church backgrounds and spiritual styles. Supporting and encouraging one another through difficult times, rejoicing in the joys and giving thanks for the amazing is one of our strengths as is praying for one another, those God has laid on our hearts and wider world issues. New members are most welcome.

Description	We are a warm-hearted, open-minded group whose Thursday evening meetings provide fellowship, support and encouragement in our Christian growth as we travel our spiritual journeys together, sharing good times and bad. Our lively discussions are stimulated by our diversity of faith backgrounds and understandings, often challenging traditional tenets of faith. After a social catch-up, we move on to the topic for discussion, which might come from church themes or other sources, using various media. We encourage all who are willing to facilitate in turn, for interest, variety and personal development. We end with a time of prayer for ourselves and others.
