Rachel and Harry Woodward

Rachel, née Bateman, married Harry Woodward on Saturday, 5th October, at St. Michael's in Porthilli, Cornwall, where the couple currently resides. The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father, Rev. Patrick Bateman, the former rector of St. Margaret's. The day was filled with joy, laughter, and love, celebrated with close family and friends

CYP BASICS TRAINING

📍 St Bartholomew, Horley RH6 8AB

📅 Saturday 16th November, from 9am - 4pm
With 1 hour for lunch, (Bring your own as lunch isn't provided).

What is it?
Join in with Children and Young People (CYP) Basics training, feel quipped for Children's, Youth and Family ministry.

Who is it for?
If you're interested or already involved in CYP ministry you are very welcome to come along for lively discussion, reflection and development of practice, which we can tailor to your church's needs.

Why do it?

- It's a whistle-stop tour across the basics of ministry with Children, Young People and Families.
- It works especially well with whole (or majority) volunteer teams from churches and deaneries.
- Helps you to think about your vision for children, youth and families ministry.

Topics Covered

- Accessible Activities
- Spiritual Styles
- Faith Development
- Core Values
- Values & Priorities
- General/Spiritual Development
- Programme Planning
- Learning Styles
- Behaviour
- Trends of Gen Alpha (children and young people born between 2010 to 2024)

Delivered by Imani McEwen, Diocesan CYP Officer
